• WHO ARE WE?

OUR MISSION

We are committed to improving the lives of cancer survivors. A cancer treatment plan may include medications that are not paid for by the government or hospital. Our oncology drug access coordinators can help you access financial assistance through:

- A complete financial support and reimbursement programs to ensure you have timely access to the medications you need and quality care throughout your treatment;
- Support during times of potential stress and confusion, working directly with medical professionals, government agencies or private insurers to facilitate the process. We help patients complete the necessary paperwork and process to ensure they begin treatment without administrative delays;
- An offer for training opportunities to our access coordinators;
- Creating networking opportunities to support each other.

OUR SERVICES AND COMMUNICATION TOOLS

The AQCAMO offers several services and information and communication tools to its members:

- Website www.aqcamo.ca
- Documentary and forms reference center (on the website)
- Training Day
- Newsletters
- Annual Conference
- Recognition evening (Soirée Reconnaissance)
- Co-creation workshop new!

PRESENTATION

OF THE CONGRÈS & SOIRÉE RECONNAISSANCE “ ENSEMBLE POUR LE RAYONNEMENT DE LA PROFESSION ”

On November 11 and 12, the first-ever conference dedicated to oncology medication access coordination will be held. Pharmacists, PTAs, nurse navigators, and other health care professionals who work as oncology medication access coordinators (MACs) will gather at this event designed specifically for them.

Date : November 11 & 12, 2022

Lieu : Omni Hotels & Resorts Mont-Royal (1050, Sherbrooke West Street, Montreal, Quebec, H3A 2R6)

The conference will be combined with a Recognition Evening during which the AQCAMO will present Recognition Awards to members who stand out in their practice and who contribute to the advancement of CAM.

On the program :

- A conference dinner on Friday evening;
- Four training sessions on topics of interest to CAM;
- An exhibitor's show;
- The Recognition Evening on Saturday evening;
- And many surprises!

Thanks to your contribution, we will go one step further to be recognized within the profession!
